RESTRAINING ORDER ISSUED

The state supreme court has denied the writ of mandate asked for by Mrs. Annie F. A. Hilton to compel Judge William C. Hall of the civil division of the district court to act in the matter of the report of the commission appointed by the court to apportion to the woman a dowerage interest in the Park estate. Before the supreme court passed upon the matter Judge Hall confirmed the report of the commission and entered an order

TRAIN DUG OUT.

Redding, Cal., Feb. 24.—During the night section men dug out the day coach of the Oregon express, which was imbedded in a landslide near Keswick station, and the train pulled south this morning. During the past twenty-four hours 2.26 inches of water fell at Redding, making 39.29 inches for the season. The sun is shining today.

pattern, and Cunning's wrists were the first they have ever encircled. These cuffs were placed over the wrist joints. The other pair, lighter ones belonging to Detective Gillespie, were placed higher up on Cunning's arms. The watch showed that he removed the double bracelets in 2:031/2. Cunning was next accommodated with a pair of shackles. The chain to which they were attached was about twelve inches long, thus enabling him to take a short step. The door seemed hardly to have closed behind him when

His Article in the Medical Magazine he returned with the shackles in his hand. The time was 1:07%.

The last test was the severest of all. The last test was the severest of all. Hendcuffs were first attached to Cunning's wrists. Then shackles were locked about his ankles. Last, another pair of handcuffs was locked on in such a way as to attach the first pair to the shackles. This compelled Cunning to bend over so low that his head was within two feet of the floor. Once more he retired to the next room. This time he was gone two minutes and twenty-nine seconds, but the handcuffs and shackles had been removed.

The first thought in connection with the performance is that Cunning was within the performance is that Cunning was written at the connection with the performance is that Cunning was written at the cunning was written the performance is that Cunning was aided by a confederate, but the conditions under which the tests were made preclude such a possibility.

Beware of Bogus Goods!

Unserupulous dealers, mindful only of profit and caring nothing for the health of their customers, are offering for sale low-grade, impure whiskey, which they call Duffy's Malt

It is a bogus whiskey and a fraud, intended to deceive the Of course, when a remedy has been before the public so long, has been prescribed and used by the best doctors and in all the prominent hospitals, and has carried the blessing of health into so many thousands of homes as DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY has, imitations are bound to arise. But they can imitate the bottle and label only—no one can imitate the contents.

DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY is a formula worked out fifty years ago by one of the greatest chemists the world has ever known, and while it has cured millions of people during the last half-century, the secret has never been discovered Any firm that will sell imitation goods will sell impure drugs. The firm that is dishonest in one thing would not hesitate to be dishonest in another. Whenever you see imitation goods with the firm's name on, beware of anything and everything put up by that firm. You endanger your own life and the lives of your family and friends by dealing "I Prescribe Duffy's Exclusively,"
